Idesia Technologies Equal Opportunities Policy

1. Statement of policy

The aim of this policy is to communicate the commitment of the Company Directors to the promotion of equality of opportunity and diversity in Idesia Technologies Ltd.

It is our policy to provide employment equality to all, irrespective of:

- Gender, including gender reassignment
- Marital or civil partnership status
- Having or not having dependants
- Religious belief or political opinion
- Race (including colour, nationality, ethnic or national origins)
- Disability
- Sexual orientation
- Age.

We are opposed to all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination. All job applicants, employees and others who work for us will be treated fairly and will not be discriminated against on any of the above grounds. Decisions about recruitment and selection, promotion, training or any other benefit will be made objectively and without unlawful discrimination.

We recognise that the provision of equal opportunities in the workplace is not only good management practice, it also makes sound business sense. Our equal opportunities policy will help all those who work for us to develop their full potential and the talents and resources of the workforce will be utilised fully to maximise the efficiency of the organisation. We recognise that diversity is a strength and an asset to our business.

2. To whom does the policy apply?

Idesia Technologies' EO policy applies to all those who work for (or apply to work for) the organisation, including;

- Employees
- Contract workers
- Agency workers
- Trainee workers and students on work experience or placements
- Volunteer workers
- Former employees.

3. Equality commitments

Idesia Technologies is committed to:

- Promoting equality of opportunity for all persons
- Promoting a good and harmonious working environment in which all persons are treated with respect
- Preventing occurrences of unlawful direct discrimination, indirect discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- Fulfilling all our legal obligations under the equality legislation and associated codes of practice
- Complying with our own equal opportunities policy and associated policies
- Taking lawful affirmative or positive action, where appropriate
- Regarding all breaches of equal opportunities policy as misconduct which could lead to disciplinary proceedings.

This policy is fully supported at director level and is implemented throughout the organisation.

4. Implementation

The Chief Executive (Mark Buttle) has specific responsibility for the effective implementation of this policy. Each director and manager also has responsibilities and we expect all our employees to abide by the policy and help create the equality environment which is its objective.

In order to implement this policy we shall:

- Communicate the policy to employees, job applicants and relevant others (such as contract or agency workers)
- Incorporate specific and appropriate duties in respect of implementing the equal opportunities policy into job descriptions and work objectives of all staff
- Provide equality training and guidance as appropriate, including training on induction and management courses.
- Ensure that those who are involved in assessing candidates for recruitment or promotion will be trained in non-discriminatory selection techniques
- Incorporate equal opportunities notices into general communications practices (e.g. staff newsletters, intranet)
- Obtain commitments from other persons or organisations such as subcontractors or agencies that they too will comply with the policy in their dealings with our organisation and our workforce
- Ensure that adequate resources are made available to fulfil the objectives of the policy.

5. Monitoring and review

We will establish appropriate information and monitoring systems to assist the effective implementation of our equal opportunities policy. The effectiveness of our equal opportunities policy will be reviewed annually and action taken as necessary. For example, where monitoring identifies an under-representation of a particular group or groups, we shall develop an action plan to address the imbalance.

6. Complaints

Employees who believe that they have suffered any form of discrimination, harassment or victimisation are entitled to raise the matter through the agreed procedures;

- Company grievance policy

A copy of these procedures is available from the Company Secretary, Jacqueline McGuigan. All complaints of discrimination will be dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially.

In addition to our internal procedures, employees have the right to pursue complaints of discrimination to an industrial tribunal or the Fair Employment Tribunal under the following anti-discrimination legislation:

- Racial and Religious Hatred Act 2006
- Sex Discrimination Act 1975
- The Sex Discrimination (Gender Reassignment) Regulations 1999
- Civil Partnerships Act 2004
- Disability Discrimination Act 1995
- Disability Discrimination Amendment Act 2005
- Employment Equality (Age) Regulation 2006

- Employment Equality (Religion or Belief) Regulation 2003
- The Employment Equality (Sex Discrimination) Regulations 2005
- Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulation 2003
- Equal Pay Act 1970 (Amended)
- Equality Act 2006
- Gender Recognition Act 2004
- Race Relations Act 1976
- Race Relations Amendment Act 2000
- Race Relations Act 1976 (Amendment) Regulation 2003

Employees wishing to make a complaint to a tribunal will normally be required to raise their complaint under our internal grievance procedures first.

7. Commitment

Every effort will be made to ensure that employees who make complaints will not be victimised. Any complaint of victimisation will be dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially. Victimisation will result in disciplinary action and may warrant dismissal.
